Bishop Belleau School Welcomes New Principal

November 12, 2020

The Northeastern Catholic District School Board would like to welcome Kevin Wendling as the new Principal at Bishop Belleau School, located in Moosonee.

Mr. Wendling will be officially starting this new role on Monday, November 16, 2020. Our Catholic community of schools and families would like to extend a heartfelt welcome and offer our prayers for his successful transition to the community.

Tricia Stefanic Weltz, Director of Education, commented, "We welcome Mr. Wendling to our Board and to the Bishop Belleau School community. His vast experience and dedication to Catholic education will be a huge asset to our team. We sincerely appreciate the leadership he will bring to Bishop Belleau School."

Mr. Wendling has been in the educational sector for 27 years and has held many positions in leadership; from teaching in both the elementary and secondary panels, to being a vice-principal and holding the position of school principal.

"I am very excited to be joining the Bishop Belleau School family and traveling to Moosonee to join the community. I am looking forward to meeting all of the students and staff and working with everyone to support Catholic education at Bishop Belleau School." noted Kevin Wendling.

Mr. Wendling is an active member of Paroisse St-Jean de Brebeuf in Port Colborne. In his spare time, he enjoys hiking, the outdoors, reading/audio books, travelling and activities with his family.
