Conflicts of Interest

Pecuniary conflicts of interest relate to a trustee's monetary or economic interests. A pecuniary interest that gives rise to a conflict may take one of three forms:

An indirect pecuniary interest, which arises from the trustee being a shareholder, owner, part-owner, director, officer, or member of a corporation or body having a monetary or economic interest in a matter.

A deemed pecuniary interest, which arises when the parent, spouse, or child of the trustee has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest that is known to the trustee.
