

Sears Drama Festival – Schedule of Plays

Friday, April 16, 2010

No Fading Star by Celeste Raspanti
Englehart High School

This drama takes place in a Convent near Baden (Germany) near the French border during the Holocaust where the nuns are hiding Jewish children from the Nazis.

A Walk in the Park by student Chrissy Bowman
Kirkland Lake District Composite School

An important statue gets broken and there are 6 teenagers who were in the park at the time. The police are questioning each one so that they can find out what happened, and more importantly, who broke it. Unfortunately, every teenager has a different story, and each is just as unbelievable as the last.

Saturday, April 17, 2010

An Old Family Recipe
by teacher Maureen Haas
O’Gorman High School

This drama brings to life family dynamics as well as flash backs to Indonesia where Maureen’s mother lived as a young girl during WWII.

The Proposal by Anton Chekhov
Iroquois Falls Secondary School

Landowner Stepan Stepanovitch Chubukov, his daughter, Natalya and her suitor for her hand in marriage, Ivan Vassilevitch Lomov make up the cast of this comedy.

Casey’s Chest
by students Sarah Lear and Christina Smith
Englehart High School

A child’s “imaginative apparitions” come to life in this comedy.

Sunday, April 18, 2010

Hamster Therapy
by student Carlyle Fiset
Timiskaming District Secondary School

This drama takes place over the course of one semester at a high school. The characters meet after school every day at the edge of the school property.

Back in Fifteen Minutes by student Amelia Sher
O’Gorman High School

A humorous account of what happens during a coffee break during the work day.

For more information on the Festivals taking place all over Ontario at this time go to <http://www.searsdramafestival.com/>