

St. Patrick School poets shine in week-long Spring Pulse Poetry Festival festivities!!

Friday found three students from St. Patrick School receiving prizes in the Cobalt Rocks Poetry Contest. Shellby Johnson placed first in this competition and Dylan Neddo along with Morgan Van Wetten received honourable mentions.

Saturday noon festivities again had three St. Patrick School "Passion of Poetry" group members (Pictured below) assist with the indoctrination of John Gore into the Poetry Hall Of Fame at the Cobalt Library

On the left, Terri and Dylan Neddo, a brother-sister team of poets recite a poem by John Gore. On the right, Sarah Eckert presents a floral boquet to poet John Gore.

On Saturday evening, four St. Patrick School students brought the house down with their poetry recitals on stage at the Classic Theatre in Cobalt. Shellby Johnson, D' Aundra Dewar, Cassie Morin and Sarah Eckert each recited two of their favourite personal poems as well as poems of fellow poetry group members that were unable to attend that night, helping to close the third annual week-long Spring Pulse Poetry Festival.
