May Virtue of Humility

Reflection: Humility is standing before God with an awareness of gratitude for the gifts given. I show humility when I am myself. I don't worry about impressing other people. I am aware of my ability and I desire to be a better person. When I do something wonderful, humility reminds me to be thankful rather than boastful.

Scriptures for Humility: "Humble yourself under the hand of God." 1 Peter 5:6, 7
"God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." James 4:6

Quotes to remember: "Humility is the foundation of all other virtues; hence, in the soul in which this virtue does not exist there cannot be any other virtue except a mere appearance." (Augustine of Hippo)

Humility, that low, sweet root from which all heavenly virtues shoot.
(Thomas Moore)

Through failure, we learn a lesson in humility which is probably needed, painful though it is. (Bill Wilson)

Poems for the Season

Alligator, Alligator

Alligator, Alligator
Where are you?
Are you in the creek?
Will you jump out and say boo?

Alligator, Alligator
What do you want to do?
Do you want to go and play?
Or do you want to make some stew?

Alligator, Alligator
Where are you?
Are you in a lake
Chewing on Sue?

April twenty-fourth is the day
When the Easter bunny hops his way
Children await for his delicious present
The reaction in the morning is always pleasant
Wonderful colours all around
Eggs with patterns scattered on the ground
I imagine that most people love this time
Because the chocolate's amazing
And his spirit's divine.

If I Were

If I were a pointed shoe
I'd point, flex and dance for hours
I'd jump, twirl and flutter
Until I no longer had any energy left in me.

Easter

Easter is the time of year
When children are the happiest
It's a time for joy, excitement, love
And many other wonderful emotions.
On this 24th day in the month of April
We go on a hunt ... a chocolate hunt
Chocolate eggs, chocolate bunnies
And many other tasty treats.

Easter is also a time to spend with
Family, friends, and loved ones.
Although many people may only think of
The Easter Bunny, there is one very Special man who is important not to forget.

Jesus.

Jesus died on the cross and rose from the dead.
He sacrificed his life to save us.
He is the true reason why we celebrate Easter.
Happy Easter.

DO YOU NOT KNOW that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. (1Cor 3: 16-17)

HERE IS MY SERVANT, whom I have chosen, my beloved, with whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit upon my servant to proclaim justice to the gentiles. (Mt 12:18)

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD GOD is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me; the Lord God has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, release to prisoners, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour. (Isaiah 61:1-2)

THE WIND BLOWS where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. (Jn 3:8)

GREAT IS THE LORD, and greatly to be praised. They shall celebrate the fame of the Lord's abundant goodness and joyfully acclaim your righteousness. (Psalm 145:3, 7)

Catholic Education Week: Celebrating the Spirit

In our schools, the Spirit of God is alive! When you walk through the halls next week, stop and listen. You will hear the marvelous work of the students and staff reflecting God's graciousness in their learning and teaching. This year's Catholic Education Week (May 1-6) gives us an opportunity to shine a light on our schools with this theme: Catholic Education:

Celebrating the Spirit. The Scriptural text comes from St. Paul's letter to the Romans: "All who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God." (Romans 8:14) St. Luke also refers to the Spirit when he writes, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me." (Luke 4:18) The Psalmist calls on God's Spirit to renew the face of the earth. During this Catholic Education Week, let's open our doors to God's Spirit in a special way and celebrate how the Spirit is renewing the face of our schools.

God of our journey to Easter, with gratitude we move towards your deep love. Strengthen us for these days of suffering and wonder. We prepare to die with You, die to those unnecessary parts of ourselves at the crucifixion. But we also rise. Rise into our true element. Leaving the land of fear, and alienation and into Your grace-filled embrace.

Your Spirit carries into pure thankfulness. For the minuscule and the magnificent; for seconds and the eons; for the note and the symphony; for the single smile and a community of beauty. May our thankful hearts continue to be open to Your love, to celebrate Your Spirit of gratitude.

Amen

April's Virtue was Justice.

Let justice flow like a stream, and righteousness like a river that never goes dry. Amos 5:24
