NORTHEASTERN CATHOLIC DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

OCTOBER 21, 2026 | PUBLIC BOARD MEETING

Rooted in Belonging. Growing Together.

✦ Student Achievement: 2025–2026 EQAO Results

The Superintendents of Education presented the Board's 2025–2026 EQAO results, highlighting student achievement in reading, writing, and mathematics. The results provide valuable information to celebrate successes, identify areas for growth, and guide continued improvement in teaching and learning. Our focus remains on strengthening instructional practices and improving achievement for all students.

WHY IT MATTERS Understanding student achievement helps us make informed decisions and strengthen learning outcomes for every student.

✦ Supporting Learning Through Digital Resources

Information was shared about the Board's recent purchase of the Edwin digital learning platform, in accordance with Ministry of Education direction. This resource will support access to digital learning materials for students and educators. Implementation will focus on helping educators use these resources effectively to support classroom learning.

WHY IT MATTERS Providing students and educators with quality learning resources supports engaging, accessible, and effective learning experiences.

✦ Turning Strategic Priorities into Action

The CEO presented an update on departmental goals and the establishment of an Officers' Collaborative, both supporting implementation of the Board's Multi-Year Strategic Plan. This work strengthens collaboration, shared accountability, and alignment of operational priorities across departments. Regular monitoring and collaborative learning will help ensure that our strategic priorities translate into meaningful action across the system.

WHY IT MATTERS When departments work together toward shared goals, we strengthen our ability to use resources responsibly, support schools, and achieve meaningful results for students.

✦ Governance in Action

Trustees recognized and expressed their sincere appreciation to fellow trustee, Steve Malciw, who will conclude 23 years of dedicated service to Catholic education. Trustees also shared insights from a recent regional meeting, reflecting their commitment to ongoing learning and effective governance. The Board further acknowledged the 100th anniversary of the Grey Sisters, honouring their enduring legacy of faith, service, and Catholic education in our communities.

WHY IT MATTERS Strong Catholic school governance is rooted in dedicated service, continuous learning, and a shared commitment to preserving our Catholic identity while building for the future.
